George Murray by Putting Paris Green in His Tea-Expert Medical Tea-tumony introduced.

Murray with paris green. It developed during the progress of the trial, which was continued several days, that considerable bad feeling existed between Murray and Bradner before the complaint was made. Bradner and his wife moved into Murray's house in Grand Rapids township and Murray lived with thom. Murray tesfield that the powen was put into his tea and that within one-half hour after having drank it he began to feel the symptoms of porsoning and proceeded to fill numself up with antidotes. Among them were a teacup full of salt, one teacup of vinegar, two quarts of sour milk, one-half teacup of mustard and one dozen pals. By the united action of these antidotes the effects of was saved. Expert medical testimony was introduced by the defense, which showed the circumstances surrounding the complainant's charges to be im-

Neille Drank Too Much.

Officer Warren was called into the wine rooms of Ackley & Frost's saloon on East Bridge street last night by a report that a woman was deathly sick and needed assistance. When the officer entered the place he saw a young woman suffering from what he supposed to be symptoms of poisoning and at once called for the city ambu lance. When the ambulance arrived the young woman's male companion said it was only a case of over-indulgence in the intoxicating bowl and re fused to have her taken away. said the young woman's name is Nellie Wood and that she roomed on Canal street. He ordered a back and she was taken to her home.

Served a Body Execution.

John Broesma, a grocer at No. 117 Hilton street, was locked up in the county jail last night on a body execu-tion. He and Edward Wickering had some trouble over a board bill and Brossma retained Wickering's clothes as payment for the amount claimed to Wickering sued Broesma in Justice Brown's court to recover his wearing apparel or payment for its value. He was given a judgment for $20 and corts. The clothes could not be found and the amount of the judgment could not be recovered. Accordingly a body execution was issued yesterday and served by Deputy Sheriff Pulver.

McCarthy was Acquitted.

John McCarthy, a checker for Ball & Waters, was acquitted in police court yesterday on a charge of violating the back ordinance by soliciting passengers beyond thirty feet from his back at the Union depot. It was shown at the hearing that a person who was on the depot platform to engage a hack was in search of McCarthy, as he had already checked the passenger's baggage of on the train a short distance out of the city. It was evident in the mind of Judge Haggerty that McCarthy was not the party who was doing the soliciting.

Two of Them Convicted. John Brandt, John Dorenbos and Sipke Vesterboom, three men who were charged with larceny of over $25 from the person of Jacob Vanderwert, were tried in the superior court yesterday afternoon. to treat and cure diseases that have long re-sisted ordinary methods. It is not regarded as proper for a physician to beast of what he can do, but the physicians of this Institute make certain clear and distinct claims as to their superior skill as specialists, and to the thorough and successful character of their efforts. They claim that they are prepared by education, long training and experience for the treatment of discases of the nose, throat and lungs, and of chronic discases of every character. This Institute is equipped with all the instruments, appliances and familities that modern science affords, and we can do work more satisfactorily, a thousand times, than the average physician. We have brought to Grand Rapids, and now furnish its people, all the advantages of a large medical institute in a great city.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS.

Almost Entirely Deaf From Ca-

"I have had catarrh," said Mr. Johnson, "ever since I can remember. My nose was stopped up continually. caught cold frequently and was niways coughing and spitting. I suffered con-stantly from headaches, which were severe over the eyes. I had a sore throat every time the weather changed. This was my normal condition for a number of years, and although I took medicine to relieve my suffering I did not go under medical treatment. "But the catarra attacked my ears and I was compelled to take treatment. There were building and ringing sounds in the ears; my hearing became affected and about two years ago I became ompletely deaf in the right car, The bearing in the left ear was bad also, I could scarcely hear a person even when words were shouted into my ears. You can imagine how injurious this was to me and how it spoiled my whole exist ence. I felt drowey in the morning, I was confused soil d ary and a continual reazing in the ears made me long for "Friends indvised me to go to Dr. Copeland and associates and I was per sunded, although I felt that they could not possibly do me any good.

"Well, sir, in one month's time my bearing has been entirely restored.

These physicians began at once to remove the cause, which was estarrh, and now I am getting well of that. My ears are all right again and I hear as well as I ever did. I am feeling like a new man anil I am profoundly graseful to liv. Copeland and associates for what they have done for me. I neverthough that caserrb - that is, chronic afarrb - 1
